GREENSBORO TOOK THE GAME

But Oak Ridge Put up a Good, Stiff Game.

THE SCORE WAS TEN TO NOTHING

It Was a Clean, Manly Game With no Kicking and no Scrapping—A Return Game Here Saturday.

The Greensboro Football Team, with some dozen or so of rooters, went out to Oak Ridge yesterday afternoon to play the school team of that place.

The game was marked throughout by the entire absence of all rough and or objectionable features which are unfortunately sometimes seen on the gridiron. No player on either side was injured during the game. The school team were considerably lighter than their town opponents but put up a strong, snappy game, which was especially credible as this was their first game this season. They have some excellent material both in and behind the line, and with a little more practice will give any of the neighboring teams a close rub. The visiting boys were especially pleased with the cordial reception extended them by both the professors and students, and the spirit of fairness exhibited by the players.

The game opened by Oak Ridge kicking off. The ball was caught by Greensboro on the thirty yard line and carried down the field by short gains for a touchdown by Wharton. Devin kicked goal. The ball was brought to the center of the field and kicked off by Oak Ridge. Greensboro returned the kick. Oak Ridge then made some pretty gains and then kicked. Greensboro obtained the ball and carried it for another touchdown by Caldwell. No goal. Oak Ridge again kicked off. Greensboro returned the kick. Oak Ridge gained once or twice but lost it all on downs. End of first half.

Greensboro kicked off in second half. Oak Ridge tried the line but was forced to kick. Greensboro lost the ball on downs. Then occurred some of the prettiest playing of the day. Time after time Oak Ridge plunged through the heavy line of their opponents for good gains, but were finally forced to kick. Greensboro got the ball on the twenty yard line and advanced it rapidly up the field, but time was called before a touchdown could be made.

Score, Greensboro 10, Oak Ridge 0.

The Oak Ridge boys, among whom are several from Greensboro, are such a fine, manly lot that the Greensboro management has asked for a return game to be played here next Saturday, which will probably be played.

EVANGELIST LEE.

Resolutions by His Church Endorsing Him and His Work.

At the last quarterly conference at West Market Street church, the church of which Rev. J. W. Lee, the evangelist, is a member, the following resolutions were passed, which are self-explanatory. This bold and fearless preacher could have no stronger endorsement than the unsolicited recommendation given him below and which we gladly print:

"Resolved, 1st. That we have heard with great pleasure the report of our brother Rev. J. W. Lee, local elder, a member of this quarterly conference; and that we are thankful to God for the great work He has enabled our brother to do during the year now closing.

"Resolved 2nd. That as a quarterly conference, we heartily endorse Brother Lee as a devout and earnest christian man, and as a sound and able preacher of the gospel and in perfect accord with our Methodist doctrine and polity. And as such we cheerfully commend him to any who need his services. "M. S. SHERWOOD,

"Recording Steward."

Detroit, Nov. 17.—Boydell Bros.' paint factory was burned today, the loss aggregating $100,000. The cause of the fire is supposed to have been spontaneous combustion.

THE KRONBERG CONCERT.

The Musicians Greeted by a Large Audience.

The Kronberg Grand Concerts made their appearance at the Academy of Music last night. The house was not packed but it was an audience of intelligent and music loving people. The coming of this company had been looked forward to for several days.

The people were thrown into a state disappointment when the announcement was made that Mme. Kronberg was suffering from a deep cold and throat trouble, and that she was therefore unable to take the leading part in the program.

Without taking the program as it was arranged and noting each number separately, we will take the concert as a whole. Mr. Frank Kennedy as a violinist demonstrated the fact that for masterly touch and expression, he is an accomplished artist. His selections were well received and each number was encored.

Miss Marie Patterson is a pianist of no mean ability. Her playing was artistic and as an accompanist she was exceptionally good.

Mme. Kronberg, though advised by her physician not to attempt to sing, appeared before the footlights and sang very sweetly. It was apparent that the effort cost her a great deal of pain, especially when high notes were reached. She was greatly distressed over the situation, but the sympathy of her audience was with her. Her indisposition was greatly regretted, as it was a disappointment to the people who expected and hoped to see and hear her at her best. The effort she made proved that under favorable circumstances she has beauty of voice.

Mr. S. Kronberg, baritone, sang in a full, round and cultivated voice and that his selections were pleasing was proven by the encores he received.

He tells us he is arranging for a grand May Festival for next spring and he expects to have sixteen or more of the finest and best trained singers with an orchestra composed of forty pieces, which will stop at about three places in this State, Raleigh, Greensboro and Charlotte. The idea is to stop for a short season and the concerts will be added to by a large chorus of local talent.

"THE ALLEN."

The Hotel Formerly Known as the Morton House.

The hotel, on East Market street, formerly run by Mr. Morton, now of the Benbow, was re-opened today by Mr. W. B. Allen, lately of Winston. The place will hereafter be known and designated as "The Allen."

The building has been newly fitted up and re-furnished by Mr. Allen. It is neat, home-like and attractive. There you can get all the comforts, conveniences and are allowed all the privileges of a hotel and yet it is more private, quiet and home-like—just suited to many who prefer a stopping place of that kind.

Today, in company with a few friends, a TELEGRAM man had the pleasure and good fortune of taking dinner at The Allen. The menu was perfect. We shall not attempt to tell of the many good things contained therein.

We did full justice to it, but in giving the public a description of the dinner we are sadly at a loss. THE TELEGRAM ventured the assertion some time ago that Mr. Allen knew how to feed people. That was before taking—this is after, and we know that making the assertion we were entirely correct.

Give The Allen a call when you are hungry or want a good place to sleep, and our word for it, you'll be comfortably and satifactorily taken care of.

THE PARTY OFF.

To Hear the Merry Jingle of the Wedding Bells.

Today at noon a party of the friends and relatives of Hon. Thomas Settle, left here in a private car over the C. F. & Y. V. railway for Wilmington to attend his marriage tomorrow to Miss Potter, of Wilmington.

The party was composed of the following: Misses Flossie and Julia Settle, Lieut. Douglas Settle and wife, David Settle, Mrs. B. C. Sharpe, R. Percy Gray and N. Glenn Williams.

And War With Turkey May Follow. Odd Fellows Get a Scorching--A Catboat's Crew in the Water.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Washington, Nov. 17.—It is again reported that after the next session of Congress Speaker Reed will retire from Congress and from politics and settle in New York City for the practice of law. It is intimated that eminent and wealthy citizens will endeavor to make him the leader of the Republican party in New York to succeed Senator Platt.

IN OLD VIENNA.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Nov. 17.—The latest despatches received from Vienna indicate that the situation there is of the most serious nature. The Parte has not complied with the demands of Austria as yet. It is stated that if the demands are not complied with by noon tomorrow the Baron de Calie, Austrian Minister to the Parte, will leave Constantinople and the Austrian warship, now at Messina, will bombard that port.

ODD FELLOWS HALL BURNED.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Peekskill, N. Y. Nov.17—The Cryptic Hall of the Odd Fellows was burned this morning. The lower part of the building was occupied by the American Express company and by Samuel Lindaman, a wholesale and retail clothing dealer. The total loss is estimated at fifty thousand dollars. Fireman George Duryea was struck by a falling beam and critically injured. Fred Biggs, a fireman also had his right hand severely injured.

SCULPTOR SCULPING McKINLEY.

He Will Have A Bronze Bust or Bust.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 17—The President consented to sit to a sculptor and and he began modeling his clay for a bronze bust today. It is thought that the plaster of paris cast will be completed within a couple of weeks and that during this time President McKinley will sit to the sculptor daily from nine to ten o'clock in the morning.

STABBED THE EDITOR TO DEATH

Accused Harrison of Discriminating Against the Baptists.

New Orleans, Nov. 16.—W. H. Harrison, editor of the Register, published at Ashland, the seat of justice of Benton county, Mississippi, was stabbed to death by Mr. I. L. McDonald yesterday. The trouble arose over a notice of an approaching religious lecture published in the register. McDonald thought the notice too short and condensed, and said that if the lecturer had been a Methodist instead of a Baptist, Harrison would have given him a more extended and flattering notice. Harrison replied, and McDonald, backed by his brother, a boy of 16, attacked him with a knife, killing him. There was a very ugly feeling over the murder and threats were made of lynching, so that the two McDonalds were taken to Hofy Springs for safety.

To Buy A Home.

Mr. John M. Tyer, of Franklin, Tenn., the father of Rev. Dr. A. P. Tyer, presiding elder of the Elizabeth City district, is in the city, accompanied by the latter, with a view to buying a home here.

THE TELEGRAM hopes that Mr. Tyer may be able to secure a place to suit him, and all will welcome him as a citizen of Greensboro. His son, Rev. A. P. Tyer, is here with him to assist in the selection of a suitable home. He will probably spend several days in the city where he has many friends who will be glad to see him.

Litchfield, Conn., Nov. 17.—The main building of the Echo Farm creamery, at Washington Depot, was burned this morning. Loss, $20,000; covered by insurance.

A THEATRICAL SUICIDE.

Drank Poison in Front of His Sweethearts's House.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—Ed. Fink, twenty years old, gaily waved at his sweetheart a hand containing a bottle of carbolic acid.

"Hurrah! I'm off," he shouted, and he drained the bottle of its contents. Fink stood opposite the home of Miss Minnie Peterson. She sat by her parlor window watching her youthful lover, with whom she had quarreled. She saw him raise the bottle to his lips and heard his adieu. Then she saw him swallow the poison and fall. She rushed across the street and knelt until an ambulance came. Fink was taken to the hospital, where he died an hour afterward. The trouble that led to the tragic denouement started in a lover's quarrel Saturday night at a party. Failing to effect a complete reconciliation, Fink ended his life.

RUNNING ON SCHEDULE.

"Hawk-Eye" Talks Pertinently on Our Light System.

EDITOR TELEGRAM: Your editorial yesterday "As to our Lights" was a most timely one, and shows a progressiveness that is commendable. It is doubtless a matter of the greatest surprise to a majority of our citizens that the city is paying $87 per annum for each arc light, when in many towns of the south of the size of Greensboro (and even smaller) arc lights are furnished at the intersection of every street at from 25 to 30 per cent. cheaper; and further, the lights are turned on at twilight, and not an hour or so afterwards. They are allowed to burn all night and not shut off at the appearance of every new moon, scarcely twenty-four hours old, or when it barely peeps above the horrizon, or when even scheduled to appear.

There is doubtless not another company any where enjoying such a liberal contract, or that is allowed to consult its own convenience and pleasure about complying with it. Greensboro gets much poorer service for $87 per light than many towns do for $60.

If those responsible for maintaining such an agreement will take the time to investigate a little, these facts cannot only be substantiated, but they will soon find out how far behind they are, of even smaller places.

If the company is allowed to enjoy such unusual privileges not embodied in the contract, then some one is surely derelict in permitting it, and if it is the fault of the contract then it ought to be annulled at the earliest possible moment and have another.

So far from your showing any hostility towards the light company, you have been very generous in not making it strong enough, and you will only push the matter vigorously to the end of securing at least fair service, you will not only fill for the people of Greensboro, a long felt want but gain for yourself fresh laurels.

Very truly,

HAWK-EYE.

GERMANS LAND IN CHINA.

Movement to Enforce Demand for Satisfaction for Murders Committed.

Cologne, Nov. 16.—A dispatch to the Cologne Gazette from Berlin says that the sailors and mariners belonging to the German cruiser division, off the coast of China, have made a landing in force at Kiaochan bay, the nearest port to Yen-Chu-Fu, in the southern part of the Chinese province of Shan-Tun, where the German missionaries were recently murdered, with the view of forcing the government of China to completely satisfy the demands of Germany.

NEW TORPEDO BOATS LAUNCHED

Two Twenty-Knotters Put Overboard by the Herreshoffs.

Bristol, R. I., Nov. 16—The two 20 knot torpedo boats 15 and 16 under construction for the United States Navy, have been launched from the south construction shop of the Herreshoffs. No. 15 was put over at high water yesterday, and No. 16 shortly before 11 o'clock today. These boats are exactly alike, and are intended mostly for harbor and bay work. They are of about the same size of the Stiletto, built by the Herreshoffs several years ago. The dimensions are: Length, 100 feet; beam, 12 feet, and draught, 3 feet 3 inches. The displacement is 46½, and the armament is to be one 1-pounder rapid fire gun. They are to be fitted with two torpedo tubes 18 inches in diameter.

To Be Tried For Murder.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

San Francisco, Nov. 17—Durant's attorneys will file a document with the distric attorney giving notice that on Friday next the attorneys for the accused will appear before Judge Bahrs and demand that a time be set for the trial of Williams in some manner. Though there has been no trial it is pretty sure that he will be convicted of the murder of Blanche Lamont.

Kneeland Torn From Thirteen Wives.

St. Joseph Mo., Nov 16—Albert F. Kneeland, who claims to have beaten the world's matrimonial record, pleaded guilty of bigamy in the Circuit Court here today, and was sentenced to the penitentiary. Kneeland says he is proud of his matrimonial ventures. The term of his imprisonment has been fixed at three and a half years. He attributes his entanglement with the authorities to the effect of the number thirteen, his last marriage having been his thirteenth.

If the Southern Stock-Mutual pays no larger dividends than the 20 per cent. now paid, and the business increases during the next seven years in the same ratio it has increased during the last three years, the actual saving for the ten years to policy-holders in North and South Carolina will be $194,822.00, and to the policy-holders in Greensboro alone, $26,237.00. Besides this the Company's assets (reinsurance reserve and surplus) represented by still larger figures will be kept at home and invested in the state. THE VISIT OF CANADA'S PREMIER

The Englishman seems to have a rather strange misconception of the attitude of the people of the United States toward Canada.

The comment of the English press on the visit of Sir Wilfrid Laurier shows a preconceived idea that the present administration would take advantage of his presence to make capital for the scheme of annexation.

Americans are showing a tendency to encroach upon the preserves of other people of late but it is more than doubtful whether Canada is wanted. Certainly if any intriguing has been going on in official circles to that end it has been kept a profound secret from the American people. Sir Wilfrid Laurier can visit Washington as frequently as he wishes and run little danger of being coquetted with by officials there.

The advantages of a union between Canada and the United States have not been so patent as to make it a popular drawing card. Unless it were a drawing card the Washington administration would hardly concern itself with it. The mass of the people have been worked up to a desire for the annexation of Hawaii and Cuba but the annexation of Canada leaves them quite cold.

The visit of Sir Wilfrid Laurier should prove a mutual benefit to the two countries. There economic interests are necessarily more or less closely interwoven and whatever tends to a fair and friendly understanding should be encouraged. The two countries can do a great deal to aid in each others advancement without coalescing. That and that only is the probable meaning of the visit of Canada's Premier.

The Hon. Chauncey Depew is a most versatile and multipotent citizen, he is president of a big railroay, a never-failing resource of the reporter and the very beau ideal afterdinner speaker. Not content with that he is branching out as manager of a republican club and will probably appear at an early day as the proud inventor of a flying machine or aspire to pose as a maker of presidents. He is the great and only Chauncey.

Mr. Low will remain as president of Columbia College. This is perhaps wise. There is no reason why Low's defeat for the mayoralty of New York should make him less suitable for the presidency of Columbia. He has been a generous benefactor to the college and an able president and his retention can give offence only to those who are more valuable as enemies than as friends.

Albert F. Kneeland, of Missouri, who has just been sent to the penitentiary for polygamy, having been married thirteen times, will doubtless become a firm believer in the ill-luck attendant on that number.

The unprecedented alacrity with which Auditor Ayer came forward to spontaneously avow his free pass record suggests that Auditor Ayer is of the opinion that only men of mark can secure free passes.

Attorney General Bogle, of Kansas, says that he has evidence showing that a coal trust in that state will attempt to control the prices of that necessity this winter. That is what comes of Kansas boasting that she has money to burn. It is only another instance of Uncle Silas showing his roll to the confidence man.

It is a bit confusing to have the papers saying now that the first snow of the season is falling in New York. Most people had been led to infer that there was quite a heavy fall of it some weeks ago.

The Queen City Guards are going down to attend the Mardi Gras festival in the spring time. The question is, who will chaperon the Guards? It will never do to send them unattended.

One of the most unique instances of over zeal that has appeared recently was the case of the Mississippi editor who was stabbed to death because his notice of a religious lecture was too short.

Surely there must be some mistake about Dr. Joyful Laughter Ramsay's jaunt down Texas way. This week's Progressive Farmer bears the impress of his invaluable supervision.

It is wonderful how Germany manages to restrain her thirst for gore and glory until she runs across an offender she can thrash with perfect safety.

An inventor has turned out a substitute for rubber, but as yet no substitute for the rubber neck has been added to the list of things known.

Mr. Marion Butler's political sarcasm smacks a little too much of an over ripe fish barrel to be palatable.

GOT A WATCH FROM THE SEA.

Capt. Skidmore Took It from a Codfish's Stomach.

Essex, Conn., Nov. 16.—The fishing smack Hoodeneganset, Capt. Skidmore, from an Eastern port with fish, has a variety of relics from the deep. Among them is a lady's gold watch, taken from a codfish's stomache near the reef off Nantucket. The timepiece is marked on the interior of the case, "Bergee, No. 8,722, London, England," with no date. It is supposed the watch was lost overboard from some ocean steamship. It is in a perfect state of preservation, with the hands marking 12:15 o'clock.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervogs system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at C, E. Holton's drug store.

Are You Subject to Attacks of COLIC?

If So, There is No Need to Suffer.

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy

WILL CURE YOU

For several years I had been subject to severe attacks of cramp colic. Sometimes they would last me an hour and hardly a week passed that I did not have several attacks. I tried everything that was suggested, but found no relief. During these attacks the muscles of the arm and leg were terribly drawn and the whole body was cramped. I was advised to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, which gave me relief at once, but not until I had taken two dozen bottles was I entirely cured. It was eight years ago since I took the remedy, and I have not had a touch of the trouble since.

VALUABLE HINTS FOR THOSE WHO GO TO KLONDIKE.

Many Treasure Seekers Will Remain Forever In the Frozen Land—Grave Apprehensions Regarding the Probable Fate of Foolhardy Prospectors.

For the use of travelers in the Klondike region ordinary woolen clothing for the body and leather boots for the feet are utterly unsuitable and can be worn only at serious risk. Indian snowshoes are essential. The Norwegian variety is worthless.

As the season advances the snow settles, and at night a firm crust forms. The most favorable months for traveling are March and April. The midwinter days are short, with sunlight in some latitudes from 10 in the morning to 8 in the afternoon. When necessary, one can travel fairly well by starlight and moonlight over the snowy tundra, but not in the woods. In May the snow is wet and heavy and travel difficult. Pools of water and the first mosquitoes then begin to appear. By May 20 the river bursts its bonds of ice and floods the lowlands, ice, debris and broken timber pouring, with a grinding noise, headlong toward the sea. For at least a week navigation is impossible.

Summer, swift footed, trips upon the heels of winter. The sun pours down with a violence not soon forgot, though in the shade it is always cool. The cry of the brant, northward bound, is continually heard, and myriads of smaller waterfowl appear on every hand. All the minor forms of life native to the region or migrants from the south with startling suddenness people the copses and pervade the air. Vegetation springs into leaf and flower at a bound, and with hardly a hint of spring summer is upon us.

Mosquitoes, the pest of the north, appear in clouds. Except in midstream or where a brisk breeze is blowing life without a net and leather gloves is misery. The Indians smear their faces with a mixture of grease and charcoal and paddle with a smudge on a square of turf in the bows of their birch canoes. The caribou, moose and bear, driven from the thickets, plunge into the river for a temporary respite. Curiously enough, during three summers black flies and midges, so plentiful to the eastward, were encountered only once on the Yukon. Possibly near its headwaters our luck would have been worse.

The records show that the lower Yukon valley has a summer temperature much in excess of that normal to the latitude. As the days are long, the traveler will prudently sleep at noon, and utilize for his work the cooler hours when the sun sweeps low along the northern horizon and the mosquitoes are less active.

Frosts appear in mid-September. Early in October the Yukon begins to be covered with ice, though it is not fully ice bound until late in November. So the round is completed.

One serious danger menaces the large population now pouring into the district. The upper Yukon is a country where subsistence has always been difficult. The first party which ever reached it—that under Robert Campbell of the Hudson Bay company, who named the Pelly river—though composed of seasoned voyageurs, was, if tradition be reliable, forced to support life by cannibalism before it could reach help. In 1866, not more than 800 Indians were able to find subsistence between Fort Yukon and Fort Selkirk. The abundant fish and game of the lower Yukon are absent. The river steamers available for transportation cannot, during the remainder of the present season, carry up to Dawson City much more food than will supply its present population. It seems improbable that any large proportion of the people now hurrying over the Chilkat portage can transport—if indeed they possess—food enough to carry them over the winter and up to the arrival of summer supplies from the lower Yukon.

Very serious hardships, and even probable starvation, therefore, confront the rash and foolhardy who push forward without proper supplies into a region whose limitations they do not realize. Fortunately, it is likely that many of those least prepared for the undertaking will never get over the divide, and will be obliged to remain in southeastern Alaska, where the rush to Klondike will have left open many opportunities for employment. Were it otherwise, the coming winter and spring would probably furnish material for tragedy. Even as it is, the circumstances offer ground for very grave apprehensions.—Professor W. H. Dall in September Forum.

Slid Down a Shoot.

George Geiger, living in Second street, San Francisco, fell five stories in the Spreckels building at Third and Market streets and fortunately escaped being seriously injured.

Geiger is a painter and was engaged in painting some woodwork on the seventh floor, when he stumbled into a shoot and fell to the second floor. He was picked up by a fellow workman and subsequently removed to the Receiving hospital. The doctor who examined him found that he had escaped with severe abrasions of the hands, legs and arms.—San Francisco Chronicle.

To Elude Plague Officials.

Hindoos in the plague district are employing many devices to elude the officials seeking for plague cases. One man who had died was set up at a table with cards in his hands, while its friends sat around him making believe that they were playing a game. The stolid expression on the corpse's face led one official to put his hand on his shoulder, when it fell over to the floor. In Yella Reddi two girls were dying. Their relatives cut their throats and buried the bodies before the coming of the officials.

Land Sale

By virtue of a mortgage deed executed by John Bethel and wife Fannie Bethel, on the 28th day of October, 1896, to J. W. Kerr, (since dead) and in consequence of a failure to pay the debt secured in said mortgage, I will sell to the highest bidder, for cash, at the court house door in Greensboro, N. C., on Saturday, December 4th, 1897, the lands described in said mortgage, butted and bouuded as follows:

Beginning on northeast corner of street on Main street leading to Greensboro, thence north 60 degrees east along westerly side of said street 10 1-3 poles, thence north 87 degrees west 14 1-2 poles, thence south 30 degrees west 10 1-6 poles to north side of said street, thence 87 degrees east with said street 14 poles to the beginning, containing one acre, more or less. There is reserved from this sale the lot out of this boundary heretofore sold to Frank Fields.

The above mortgage is recorded in book 102, page 707, in the office of the register of deeds, Nov. 4, 1897.

PORTABLE TAILOR SHOP.

Proprietor Moves It From Place to Place by the Aid of a Trolley Car.

Belleville, N. J., is about to lose its most unique place of business, which was one of the strangest in the state. About six months ago Otto Nack, a German tailor, had a discussion with his landlord. The discussion ended, the landlord says, at least as far as he was concerned, when Nack chased him out of his place by trying to stab him with a pair of big tailor's shears.

Nack was as sick of landlords as this particular landlord was sick of him and invented a place of business which earned him free advertising and good business for a time. From the traction company he purchased two old horse cars. These were run off the tracks to a vacant lot, and Nack hung out his sign and began business.

Business has been slack of late, and the tailor took down his signs and slammed the doors shut with a bang more vicious than any old time conductor on a recent hot day. He set off on a tour of the railroad lines in search of fields and pastures new. He found them somewhere, for the two old cars are to be dragged on the tracks and hitched to a trolley and will again spin along the rails to their new location, where they will be shunted off on another vacant lot, and their owner will resume business.

When the new field is worked out, the store and residence will have another flying trip, their owner proposing to keep up this mode of life until he finds a town whose people are so poorly clad that they will need his services permanently. Then the wheels will be taken from the old cars, and they will be allowed to rest for good.—New York Press.

FOUND WHAT HE SOUGHT.

A Man Hunting Trouble Is Furnished With a Quantity of It.

Preacher Alexander Williamson was delivering an impassioned exhortation at the colored camp meeting at Quarryville, Pa., the other night, when Sanders Richardson, a well known character of that region, who had been to Lancaster during the day and had bought a jugful of whisky, started to take up a collection on his own account.

The Rev. Mr. Williamson stopped short in his sermon and asked Richardson to desist. Sanders ignored the request and declared he had come to camp meeting looking for trouble. The Rev. Mr. Williamson closed the Bible, walked down from the pulpit, and undertook to conduct Richardson from the place.

The brethren and sisters kept up an almost continual shouting while the parson made his way toward Richardson.

"Just you keep quiet," said the preacher. Then he grabbed Richardson and administered to him a most thorough and artistic thrashing. When the thrashing was over, Richardson was unconscious. The leader of the choir, a man weighing 250 pounds, picked up Richardson and handed him over to a constable, who had been attracted by the noise. Then the Rev. Mr. Williamson finished his sermon as if nothing had happened to interrupt the service.

A Hot Time Ahead For England.

Charles N. Spooner, an Englishman, who spent three years in Simla and is now visiting his sister in Philadelphia, said yesterday that the British government would have much trouble in suppressing the revolt in India. "The Afridis," said he, "are the fiercest of all Indian tribes. They are desperate fighters and don't know what fear is. They are all Mohammedans, and there is just a chance that all the other tribes will become involved. If they do, there will be a long and bitter struggle. The Mohammedans stick together with remarkable fidelity. I believe that if the revolt spreads any farther England will have to send her entire military force to India.—Philadelphia Press.

Pearls In Arkansas.

White river, above and below Mount Adam, Ark., for several miles is lined with pearl hunters. The people are greatly excited over the discovery. Wagon loads of men, women and children are arriving from all sections. One party of campers found a large number of fine pearls recently. They were taken to the store of N. B. Price, and he valued them at $350. The pearls found are as large as buckshot, round and brilliant in color.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Flames Felt All Right.

The boy stood on the burning deck and rubbed his hands in glee. "I'm just from Klondike," he explained. "This feels all right to me."—Two Republics.

"FEETBALL" WINS IN CHICAGO.

Alderman Plotke's Prohibitory Or- Voted Down, 62 to 5.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 16—Alderman Plotke's famous "anti-feetball" ordinance met an ignominous death in the City Council tonight. There were few mourners, and the defeat was decisive, 62 votes against and 5 for the ordinance.

It was expected that Plotke would make a speech in support of his ordinance, and the boys were ready and waiting to have fun with him. But he simply offered the ordinance and moved its reference to a proper committee. Even this courtesy was denied him, for a motion to pass it was made and seconded and the ordinance buried unfeelingly beneath a shower of votes.

The Grandest Remedy.

Mr. R. B. Greeve, merchant, of Chilhowie, Va., certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies he could hear of, but got no relief; spent many nights sitting up in a chair; was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and was cured by use of two bottles. For past three years has been attending to business, and says Dr. King's New Discovery is the grandest remedy ever made, as it has done so much for him and also for others in his community. Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed for coughs, colds and consumption. It don't fail. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

FIGHTING NEAR HAVANA.

The Spanish Driven into the City-- Another Hospital Massacre.

Havana, via Key West, Nov. 15—The combined forces of the Spanish battalions of Barbastro and Canarias met the insurgents under Col. Petiree today a few miles from Havana A severe engagement occurred in which the insurgents used dynamite successfully against the Spanish troops. As usual, the explosions threw the Spaniards into a panic, and they retreated in disorder, leaving on the field twenty-nine soldiers and four officers killed. When the Spaniards had nearly reached Havana they were attacked again by Juan Delgado and dispersed.

At Bocas, Santa Clara province the Spanish battalion of Barcelona raided a Cuban hospital, assassinating sick and wounded Cuban soldiers, as in the worst time of Gen. Weyler. Women and children were also massacred. The butchery ended only when a Spanish Captain of the battalion protested against the crime. Then the Colonel ordered that the survivors be taken to Santa Clara. The number of victims was twenty. The prisoners number thirty.

The Guldensuppe Saw.

New York, Nov. 16.—A saw which may be the implement with which William Guldensuppe's corpse was dismembered in the cottage at Woodside L. I., where he was murdered in June last, was brought to District Attorney Young's office at Long Island City today. It is said to have been found buried to the handle in the meadow lying between Flushing and College Point, just as Mrs. Nack is said to have told the officers on Sunday last that it was placed by Martin Thorn. The saw will be produced when Thorns trial is resumed on Monday next. In anticipation of this latter event, a special venire of 200 jurors will be issued tomorrow.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Clement Manly was in the city today.

Jno. A. Barringer came in on the noon train.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Douglass came in on the noon train.

F. H. Fries and wife, of Salem, were here today going north.

We notice new houses going up in the southern part of town.

Mrs. B. Frank Mebane and Miss Gray Morehead went to Reidsville today on the noon train.

S. L. Alderman is having an addition built on the top of his flat on E. Market street, for photographic purposes.

Mrs. Bettie Carroll, of Washington, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. C. Jones, left for her home today at noon.

W. E. Allen left at noon over the C. F. and Y. V. for a two weeks' visit to relatives in Rockingham, Richmond county.

Brick have been hauled on the vacant lot of James Smith, East Market street. We hope this means another new house.

C. L. Walters went to Siler City today to visit his old home and try his luck shooting Chatham county quail and rabbits.

Malaga Grapes are offered at only 15cts a pound today by Andrews, the confectioner. He has a new ad at top of first page every day.

Rev. W. J. Twilley, pastor of Durham circuit, was here today going to Danville, to attend the Virginia conference, which is in session there this week.

McClamroch Bros. are filling a large order for their fine mantels from a distant town. They handle up-to-date material and it is pleasing to note that people are finding it out elsewhere, as well as here.

We are glad to see brick and sand on the site of the Teague foundry. This looks like rebuilding. Mr. Teague is a most estimable man and we wish him all success in his effort to re-establish his business.

Editor Barbour of our esteemed contemporary the Patriot, returned today from Washington, Baltimore and points north. W. I. Underwood got out this week's paper in the absence of the editor.

Good goods at low prices is what C. M. Vanstory & Co. want to tell you about today in their new ad. They have made a big reduction in prices; too many goods. Read their ad and go to see them.

The ladies of St. Barnabas' church are preparing to have a bazaar just before Christmas, and are anxious that Christmas presents should not be bought until the fine line they will exhibit has been seen.

Garland Daniels is moving his bicycle establishment into the new quarters especially fitted up for him in the McAdoo building. Daniels says he is very busy playing football but was compelled to take time to move.

Jos. J. Stone, who withdrew as manager the TELEGRAM because of a rush of business, reports all the work he can handle. This is a just tribute to Mr. Stone's good work. There is no better turned out from any job printing establishment in the State.

We are gratified, always, to hear of improvement in business among our merchants and business men. The people read THE TELEGRAM, and we rise to remark that the holiday trade season is close at hand and now is the time to buy a space in this paper and let our artist paint an ad on it.

There will be no prayermeeting at Centenary church tonight, as was announced yesterday. Rev. Dr. Ivey, who was to have conducted the services, left this morning for conference, important business calling him there a day earlier than he expected to go. Hence the disappointment.

Now that your Thanksgiving turkey has been secured, and if you have the proper cooking utensil for roasting him or baking him brown, the next thing will be a suitable carving outfit. What's the matter with seeing about this now. Read Odell Hardware Company's ad today about such things.

The thing for people to do who have a real and a yearning desire to build up Greensboro and her business interests is to patronize home enterprises and industries. If your local dealers haven't got what you want in stock have them get it for you, thus turning all your trade through a channel that will help the town.

Rev. J. W. Lee will leave tomorrow for Asheville to attend conference. He says the report in the Charlotte Observer, concerning his controversy with John Nichols, was not entirely correct, but that he gives the News and Observer credit for giving a correct version of the matter. He says he did not back down one inch, and those who know Mr. Lee believe that this is true.

INTEREST GROWING

In the Meetings Being Conducted at the Baptist Church.

There was a large congregation out to hear Rev. Mr. Johnson at West Washington Street Baptist church last night. Mr. Johnson took for his text, I Samuel, 4:21: "I-chabod." "The glory is departed from Israel."

The speaker said the church was the place to find Christ, but upon the door of some churches, he was sorry to say, might appropriately be written, "I-chabod, the glory is departed." I-chabod is also plainly visible upon the forehead of many church members. Christ is ready to save you just now if you will only let Him.

Mr. Johnson impressed upon his hearers the importance of spiritual power, without which the devil would reign supreme. This power must come through communing with God—you must have a covenant with Christ, the spiritual giver, before you can expect to be saved. Christ is ready and willing to saved you tonight if you will let Him.

At the conclusion of his sermon Mr. Johnson said he had been disappointed in securing help in carrying on the meeting; that it was impossible for him to prepare the sermons, deliver them and do the personal work, too; that unless the members aided him he would have to close the meetings tonight. He asked all church members present, of whatever denomination, who would uphold his hands by praying and personal work for the success of the meetings to come forward and give him their hands. Quite a number responded to this invitation, which means that the meetings will continue until further notice, at least.

Several members of the congregation stood for prayers, and a great deal of interest was manifested otherwise in the meeting.

Mr. Johnson will preach again tonight at 7:30, and cordially invites the public to attend.

Stewards Meet.

The newly elected stewards of Centenary church met Monday night and organized for the year's work as follows:

Chairman—S. S. Haithcock.
Secretary—E. E. Bain.
Treasurer—T. A. Glascock.
Committee on Poor—M. Vuncanon, H. T. Allred, Dr. E. L. Stamey.
On Music—C. C. Johnson, C. E. Brower, L. M. Clymer.
On Church Property—A. A. Johnson, G. W. Pritchett, H. T. Allred.
Ushers—T. A. Glascock, Eng. McNairy, C. E. Brower, C. C. Johnson, W. I. Underwood, Professor Toms.

November.

First we have a dash of winter;
Next a little touch of May:
Now 'tis summer's smile that greets us;
Then comes autumn's kindly gray.
Wherefore sigh for other seasons
When, before its course is run
Each November day will bring them
All before us, one by one?
